

Research Assistant Needed with Expertise on Banking and Finance

I am seeking a research assistant (undergrad or grad) with expertise on money, banking, and finance. Knowledge about or interest in the Global South, particularly South Asia, preferred though not required. The assistant will help with an ethnographic book project centered on a bank in Indian-Administered Kashmir. They will assist me in working through collected data, such as interviews, annual reports, and meeting minutes. The work will involve 2-3 hours/week for several months, at which point we will evaluate our progress. Assistants will be paid between $16-20/hour, based on training and background. Please email ntrisal@fas.harvard.edu with a brief note of interest and CV/resume.
