The American Enterprise Institute’s Summer Honors Program is a series of educational and professional development opportunities for top undergraduate students. Students in the program have the chance to connect with the ideas, research, and network of AEI, one of America's preeminent think tanks, through discussion-based seminars with AEI scholars and policy professionals, policy briefings with distinguished guests, high-level networking events, and site visits in Washington.

Eligibility: Current undergraduates and recent graduates (winter 2017 or later). International students are eligible to apply.

Location: Washington, DC

Duration: Students participate in either a single one-week course or a multi-week opportunity at the start of the summer.

Stipend: This is a fully-funded program. Housing, meals on class days, stipends and travel vouchers are all provided.

Deadlines:

- Early Decision Deadline: December 31th, 2017. Student who apply by the early decision deadline will be told if they are accepted, rejected, or waitlisted by the end of January.
- Regular Decision Deadline: March 5th, 2018.

Questions: SummerHonors@aei.org

Applications will be accepted on a rolling basis until March 15. We encourage you apply as soon as possible to be considered for your top choice.
