Fred P Hochberg served as Chairman and President of the Export-Import Bank of the United States (EXIM), where he became the longest serving Chairman in the agency's history. His weekly study group analyzes the interplay between economics, politics, and the public.

Feb. 19*  How Nationalism and Globalism Play a Role
*Tuesday at 12pm, Lunch will be served
   Guest: Larry Summers
Feb. 26  Voter Attitudes Toward Globalism
   Guest: Tony Fratto, Deputy Press Secretary to President George W Bush
Mar. 5  The Case For Trade in the Trump Era
   Guest: Ursula Burns, former CEO of Xerox
Mar. 19  Helping America's Workers
   Guest: Jared Bernstein, Center on Budget and Policy Priorities
Mar. 26  Digital Economy and Trade
   Guest: Robert Holleyman, Deputy US Trade Representative
Apr. 4  The Role of Automation
   Guest: Susan Lund, Director of the McKinsey Global Institute
Apr. 9  The Trade View From Abroad
   Guest: Christine Lagarde, Managing Director, International Monetary Fund