Information for Submitting to The Ohio State University’s Journal of Politics & International Affairs (JPIA):

The Journal of Politics & International Affairs (JPIA) is seeking qualified student submissions to be published in the Spring 2018 issue. JPIA is a student-run journal that publishes papers written by undergraduate students in the areas of Political Science, International Studies, Economics, Public Affairs, Sociology, and related fields. Publication in the Journal is an opportunity to reach a wider audience outside of the class, as well as a learning experience through the editing and feedback process. We seek to publish high quality papers that address current events and relevant subjects in the area of politics and international affairs. Ideal submissions are both informative and argumentative, with well-developed theses and strong mechanics.

The Journal typically publishes original research, theses, and essays written for upper-level courses, although all majors and class ranks are invited.

If this opportunity is of interest to you, we highly encourage you to submit a paper for publication through our website at http://u.osu.edu/jpia/submit-manuscript/. The deadline is March 2, 2018, and submissions are reviewed on a rolling basis. We have recently updated our submission guidelines, which can be found here: http://u.osu.edu/jpia/submission-guidelines/, and ask you to carefully review them before submitting.

Questions on the submission and review process can be directed to journalupso@gmail.com.
